NARRATIVE:

Kevin Scott has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include lewd or lascivious acts with a child under 14, disorderly conduct-solicit lewd acts, violation of parole, possession of narcotic controlled substances for sale, grand theft, vehicle theft, possession and sales of cocaine and failure to register as a sex offender. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 4 year term for possession and sales of cocaine. Scott was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on May 02, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Scott qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offenses for possession and sales of cocaine is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
